

Dr. Robert Cubas Joins UHealth and Department of Surgery

Robert Cubas, M.D., has joined UHealth – the University of Miami Health System and the DeWitt Daughtry Family Department of Surgery as assistant professor of surgery.

Robert Cubas, M.D.

Clinical Specialties: Advanced therapeutic endoscopy, advanced gastrointestinal minimally invasive and robotic surgery, bariatric and metabolic surgery, complex ventral and inguinal hernia repair

Research Interests: Robotic surgery, gastroesophageal reflux post bariatric surgery, hiatal hernia, esophageal stricture, choledochoscopy and Mirizzi Syndrome

Education: Fellowship: Laparoendoscopic Surgery, University of Miami, 2020

Fellowship: Minimally Invasive and Robotic Surgery, UC San Diego, 2019

Residency: General Surgery, Loma Linda University, 2018

Residency: General Surgery, Universidad Nacional de Cordoba, Argentina, 2011

M.D.: Universidad Nacional de Cordoba, Argentina, 2005

Languages Spoken: English, Spanish

Practice Locations: SCCC/UMHC on Thursdays

Appointment: 305-243-2363